

Welcome explorers to the start of your journey. This road will test your minds and hearts, and open your eyes to the world in new ways. However, no change will ever be possible if you don't take the first steps.

PART ONE:
The Path of Knowledge

A social justice hero first needs grow in understanding of the world around them. Take up a Knowledge Card if you land on a blue square.

Knowledge Threshold
If you haven't taken at least one Knowledge Card, do so now before you pass this line. →

PART TWO:
The Path of Experience

A social justice hero must learn to see the world through the eyes of others. Take up an Experience Card if you land on an orange square.

Experience Threshold
If you haven't taken at least one Experience Card, do so now before you pass this line.

Action Threshold
If you haven't taken at least one Action Card, do so now before you pass this line.

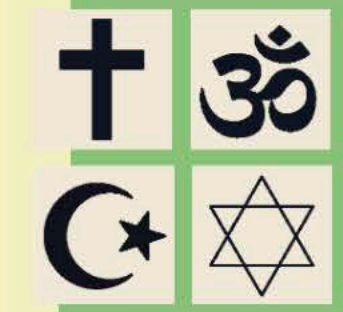

CONGRATULATIONS HERO!

You have reached the end of the game. You are now equipped to go out and change the world. But remember, the path of the social justice hero never ends. You must always seek knowledge, experience, and wisdom before acting. And you must also always be willing to consider the impact of your actions, and how you might do better next time.

PART FOUR:
The Path of Action

A social justice hero will need to discern the right action to take to make a difference in the world. Take up an Action Card if you land on a green square.

Reflection Threshold
If you haven't taken at least one Reflection Card, do so now before you pass this line.

PART THREE:
The Path of Reflection

A social justice hero needs to have the wisdom to process what they have learned and experienced, and to be sustained by prayer. Take up a Reflection Card if you land on a yellow square.

